

Speaker 1: Le Corbusier was another influential artist to the international style. His Savoye house was revolutionary and it transformed the idea of what a single-family domestic home should look and feel like, and how it should function. He had a great influence on many other architects to follow in single-family housing.

[00:00:22] [END OF AUDIO]