

Lisa Kljaich: The printing press had an impact upon the arts. One of the most important artists to capitalize on this was Albrecht Durer, who created engravings which utilized the printing press and allowed for the creation of multiple copies of his stunning masterpieces. This also allowed for the better dissemination of artistic work such as poems and plays.

[00:00:27] [END OF AUDIO]